BOOST

Boost your experience. noun

Delivering a quality refreshment program that is meaningful to your employees is more than just filling in the blank.

When your employees are looking for a boost, they want more than a simple jolt of sugar or caffeine; they want an experience! It's the satisfaction of having what they want when they want it, and knowing that it is mere steps away from their desks.

ARAMARK Refreshment Services will provide your employees with the break they need, weaving the distinct needs of your organization into a program. In other words, we help you fill in the blank.

Boost your environment.
noun

Modern equipment, recognized national brands, and clean sophisticated merchandising, are combined to offer your employees a refreshing oasis—a fusion of technology and design, which brings a true coffeehouse experience to your work force—sophisticated, yet quite comforting.

Boost your efficiency.
noun

You need information. With RefreshTECH™, our proprietary technology, we capture your usage, forecast changes in product needs (holiday breaks, client meetings, etc.), and ensure that your inventory is always at optimum levels. We are committed to delivering comprehensive spend reports and analysis, enabling you to remain on budget and to meet your financial goals.

Boost your productivity.

We are committed to our program that delivers what your employees want, keeping them refreshed, engaged, and at their peak in the office.

Our portfolio of national brands brings your employees the variety and quality they are looking for, helping you compete in today's competitive global marketplace.

Boost your dependability.

noun

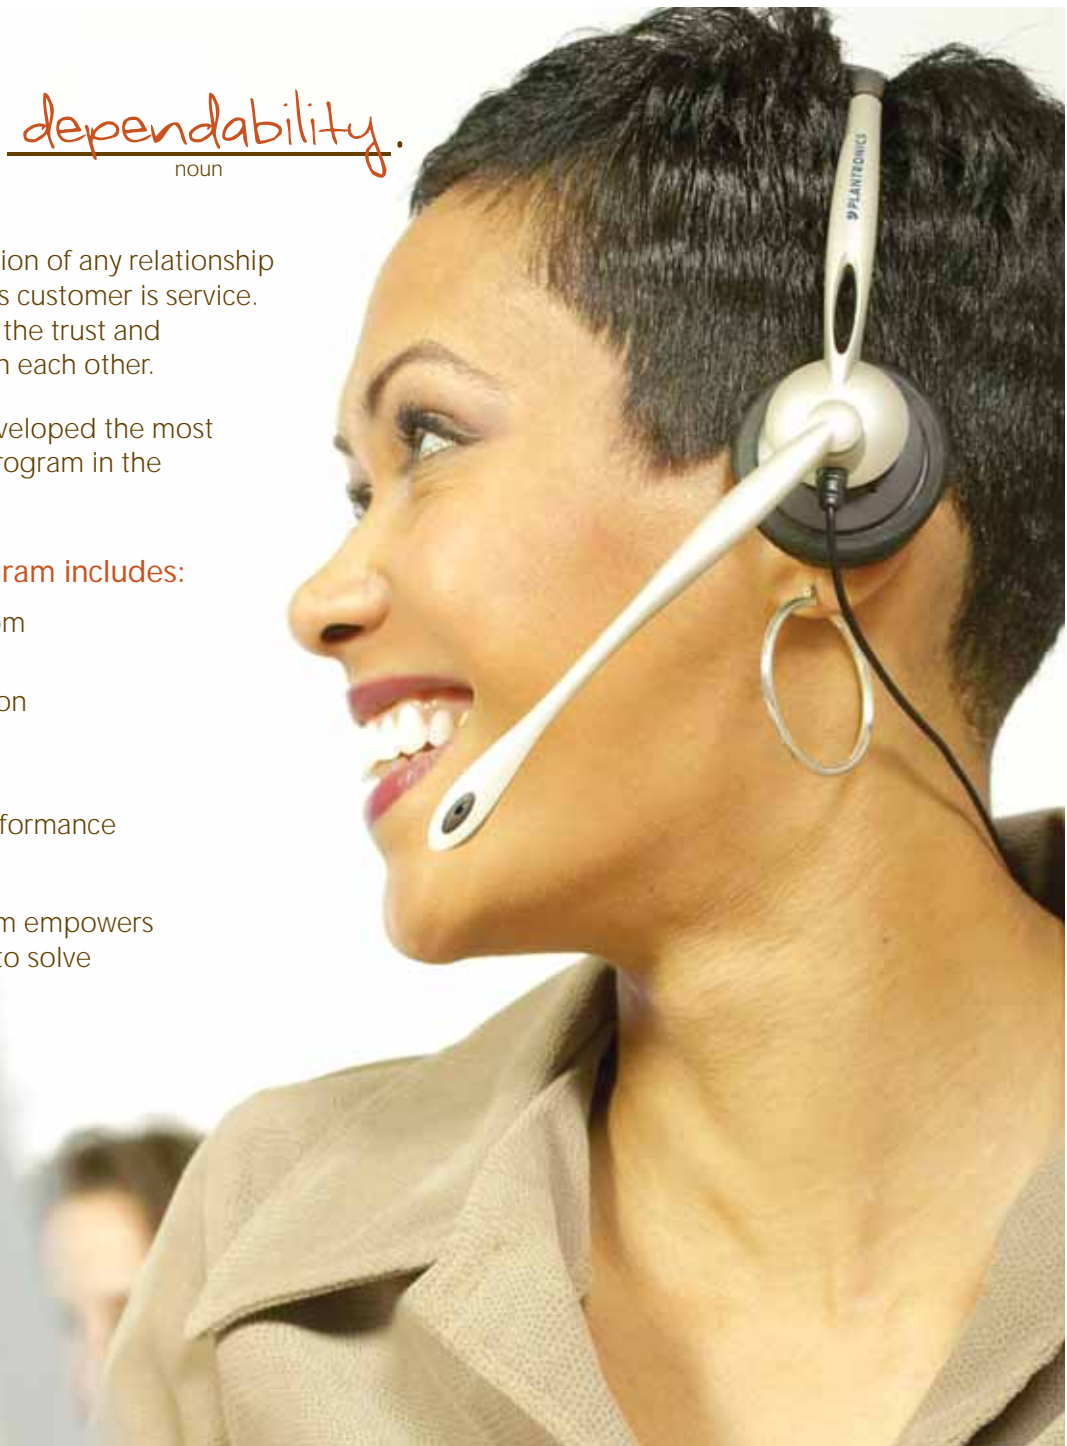

We recognize the foundation of any relationship between a provider and its customer is service. It is what makes or breaks the trust and confidence that we have in each other.

That is why ARAMARK developed the most comprehensive training program in the industry—ServiceSTARS.

The ServiceSTARS Program includes:

- Combination of classroom and field training
- Incentives and recognition for service excellence
- Individual coaching
- Client feedback and performance measurement

The ServiceSTARS Program empowers our people with the skills to solve problems and proactively address concerns.

Your Options

The perfect cup of coffee is just the beginning...

Through our strategic partnerships, we can bring you the convenience of integrated office solutions. SeamlessWeb offers a Web-based system that allows individuals to order food from local restaurants, caterers, and our in-house café.

Partner with our 1st & Fresh Catering for all your meetings, special events, and conference needs. Have fresh fruit from local farms delivered by our partners at The Fruit Guys, the leader in providing farm-fresh produce to the American workplace at the peak of ripeness and nutrition.

Your Green Sense

Our environmental stewardship platform, Green Thread, weaves through all our services. Healthier selections come from earth-conscious suppliers, and when it comes to product selections, we help your organization with environmentally friendly options:

Beverages: Fair Trade-certified, organic, shade-grown coffees

Equipment: AquaMark® water filtration reduces consumption of plastic water bottles

Supplies: Compostable and biodegradable cups and paper products made from recycled or renewable resources

Operations: Route optimization to reduce fuel and waste. Energy consumption is reduced. More materials are recycled. Less fuel is spent to replenish your refreshments.

YOUR OPTIONS | YOUR EFFICIENCY | YOUR POSSIBILITIES

Start the day with a boost, end with success.

ARAMARK's Refreshment Services brings a unique experience to your workplace—helping you maximize productivity and employee engagement. We employ the best people, provide sophisticated tools, and affect a continuous improvement process. And with this philosophy, the possibilities for filling in your blanks are virtually limitless.
